CREAM OF NEWS.

Charged With Abduction.

Chas. Williams, who is charged with the abduction of Emma Taylor, niece of H. C. Dunn, of Bowling Green, was arrested here at one o'clock Saturday. He arrived Friday night and registered at the Phoenix as "C. Wilson." Chief Campbell was telegraphed and he and Officer West made the arrest without any trouble. Williams was kept under guard until the officers from Bowling Green—City Marshal Corbin and Deputy Andrews—arrived, when he was lodged in jail for the night. He was taken to Bowling Green Sunday morning. Williams claims that he is innocent of the charge of abduction. He says the girl came to his room saying she was determined to leave home and, after spending the night or part of the night with her, he gave her $500, which money she used to buy a ticket to Louisville. He did not go with her to the depot and had nothing more to do with her leaving. Williams says he left Bowling Green to avoid a scandal when the trouble came up, as he was to have been married on the 19th inst. to a girl in St. Louis, and he wanted the matter kept out of the papers on her account.

Petty Thieving.

Saturday some thief stole a bolt of gingham from the Lipstine's show window, and later another thief carried off Dick Lipstine's hat without obtaining permission to do so, but the clearest place of thieving yet reported was done Saturday about noon while Gorman's band was making music on Main street. Henry Caldwell, colored, of the Caledonia neighborhood, had his hat taken from the back of his head, the thief making good his escape before he was aware that his hat was missing.

Washington's Monument.

The Catholics will hold services at their church on Ninth St. to-day, to commemorate the centennial anniversary of Washington's inauguration. The church will be appropriately decorated on the inside and in the yard. Father Melody has had a miniature "Washington's Monument" erected. It is twelve or fifteen feet high and makes a very good representation of the recently completed monument at the Capital which towers 555 feet above the city.

Will Try It Over Again.

Last November Mrs. Charles Englund was granted a divorce from her husband, James B. Englund, on a plea of abandonment and the plaintiff was restored to her maiden name of Charles Dawson. Yesterday the parties were granted license to re-marry, having revived the flame of love and satisfactorily adjusted their differences. They live in the vicinity of Crofton.

Election Saturday.

An election will be held by the white voters of the city Saturday to choose two trustees for the Hopkinsville Public Schools, the terms of Messrs. B. M. Flack and O. S. Brown expiring. It is probable that the same gentlemen will be re-elected without opposition, as they make thoroughly attentive and efficient officers.

Sixteen Divorces.

There have been 73 new cases filed for the Common Pleas Court next week and 17 of these are petitions for divorce from matrimonial bonds. Of the couples who have come to the conclusion that marriage is a failure, three or four are white and the rest are colored.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Elgin, to cleanse the system when constipated or bilious. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

The young people had a surprise party at Mr. M. H. Nelson's Friday evening, which was attended by twenty or more couples from the city. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Robt. N. Lander, the colored Republican candidate for the legislature, says he thinks the nomination will be conceded to him by his party, as there are no other candidates announced.

James M. Breathitt has received an appointment as clerk in the railway department of the mail service. His run will be from Providence, Ky., to Evansville, Ind. The pay is about $800 a year.

Mr. Hiram P. Salter, who has been assistant agent of the L. & N. railroad at this place for several years, will leave to-day for Sheffield, Ala., having been appointed agent of the L. & N. at that place.

The debris of the late fire that destroyed Mrs. Rodgers' millinery store house, has been cleared away and a conspicuous business sign put up on the side of Mrs. Rodgers' residence adjoining the burnt lot.

The theatrical season will be closed in Clarksville to-night and to-morrow night by Miss Georgia Davids, supported by Wm. G. Beach and Walter S. Mathews, in "Romeo and Juliet" and "Lady of Lyons."

Miss Alice Hays' room was crowded with customers at her spring opening last Thursday and many handsome purchases were made. Her stock of hats, bonnets and millinery goods in general was never more complete.

The performance given by Gorman's Minstrels Saturday night was simply attended, but the show was a very creditable one; some new features were introduced, among them being the Turkish operatic farce at the conclusion.

About the first of June the following named parties will leave here for an European tour: Mrs. John Stacken, Mrs. Moore, of Texas; Miss Mary Luckett, Mr. Walter Drane, Mrs. Drane and Miss Rosa Drane.—Clarksville Chronicle.

The following is from The West End, a Saturday paper published in a suburb of San Francisco: "Mr. Jesse L. Edmondson, formerly city editor of the Daily San Diego, San Diego, Cal., has been engaged as associate editor of The West End. Mr. Edmondson is a native of Hopkinsville, Christian county, Kentucky, and comes to us well recommended. We call upon the friends of The West End to extend to Mr. Edmondson the courtesies our paper has always received."

During the twenty seven days ending Saturday night, the police made 64 arrests, an unprecedented number. A majority of the offenders were white people and Chief Campbell says three-fourths of the arrests were for drunkenness, or offenses due directly to the use of liquor.

Miss Ada Bohannon, a pretty young lady from Nashville, is canvassing the city selling "Wit and Humor of the Age," a most excellent book containing choice selections from leading humorists. She will be in the city for several weeks and is boarding at Mr. W. H. Fyke's.

Austin Peay, who has been gathering statistics for the Kentucky Agricultural Department, takes the average of twelve farmers near Bell, Ky., for the years '88 and '89, and shows a decrease in tobacco of 43 per cent., an increase in corn of 35 per cent., and an increase in oats of 150 per cent.

Many complaints come to us of irregularities in the railway mail service in this section. Inexperienced and incompetent distributing clerks are causing great annoyance and inconvenience to our subscribers, by hauling the Kentuckians backwards and forwards for several days before delivering them at the proper offices.

Mr. N. Harrell, who lives four miles west of Lafayette, had a black mare, male, bridle and saddle stolen from his stable on the night of the 10th inst. Mr. Harrell has offered a reward of $25 for the restoration of his mule. The State of Kentucky pays $50 reward for the apprehension and conviction of horse thieves.—Telephone.

The brief of Feland, Stites & Feland in the O. V. case was printed in the Kentuckian job rooms last week and forwarded by the attorneys for the county Saturday. They had fifteen days to file the brief, but submitted it in ten days. There is now nothing to hinder the Court of Appeals from taking the case up at once and deciding it.

The proposition to compromise the balance of Muhlenberg's debt, which was to be submitted Monday, was withdrawn. The reason assigned was the withdrawal of the support of a number of citizens. Their withdrawal was due, we understand, to a fear of subjecting themselves to liability to Judge Brown, of Memphis, for his conditional fee of $25,000.—Echo.

"Money Saved is Money Made."

The time is at hand when it behooves one in selecting clothing to look to his best interest before making such purchases as are necessary, by examining the largest stocks, where the best quality of goods can be had for the least money. In looking around the city it would be well to give the firm of Pye, Dickson & Wall, Main street, next door to Bank of Hopkinsville, a call and look through their immense stock of men's youths' and boys' suits and clothing in general, genteel furnishings goods, boots, shoes, etc., a full and well selected stock of which can now be found on hand. The firm is composed of the following gentlemen: Capt. Jno. Pye, who has been in the clothing business for many years, having for a number of years represented some of the largest clothing houses in Cincinnati; T. J. Wall, formerly of Caledonia, where he handled general merchandise successfully for years, and Sam Dickson whose experience also dates way back and who maintains the reputation he had when in Fairview, that of a good salesman, fine business man and courteous gentleman. Robt. S. Green, their clerk, can also be found with them, ever ready to wait upon the trade promptly and with satisfaction to customers as well as employees. This firm sells goods at a small margin and their every endeavor is to please their customers both as to quality of goods and hard time prices, and that's just the kind of men we're looking for eternally. Measures left with them will have prompt attention and fits are guaranteed, as their garments are all made by the very best tailors in Cincinnati. Leave your order for a trial suit if you find nothing in stock that pleases, and you can rest assured of satisfaction in every particular. For fuller particulars read their new advertisement which appears in this issue.

A new first-class Stock of Clothing to be retailed out at Manufacturers' Cost and no humping. The cost sale chestnut has been practiced on the people of Christian county so often that it seems to me that all will doubt this as soon as they read it. But all I ask of those wishing to purchase good, reliable, honest Clothing at the prices that the largest merchants pay for them. Come to my store and I will prove to you that the prices I ask are cost and nothing else.

My object in this proceeding is to close out my stock of Clothing as soon as possible in order to use the up stairs of my house for other goods and will not handle Clothing at all when my present stock is sold out, so if you intend to inspect this elegant stock do so before the best are picked out. This will be a bonafide cost closing out sale to sell out this stock. I will give to any one wishing it the key to my mark and they can at their own leisure look through my goods and see what I paid for them and take them home at that price. Remember the place.
